BETWEEN THE LINES

SEASON'S GREETINGS

There's something decidedly different about this time of year. It's something on the breeze, perhaps, some special scent of blazing yule logs, of eggnog and nutmeg, of sweet pine and cinnamon. Or maybe it's simply that the winter air is filled with a special sense of wonder.

In this season of joyous celebration, it seems we are all of us children at heart, no matter what our age. For one brief, shining moment, hope takes on a life of its own and peace on earth, good will to all, does not seem such an impossible dream.

Would that it were always so.

As these happy holidays draw near, all of us here at the Mouseworks would like to add our own good wishes to all the rest. May these days find you safe and warm. May they keep you healthy and make you wise. And may we all find that deepest wish held in the hollow of our hearts and make it come true.

We'll see you back here next month. Be kind to yourselves until then, okay?

And may God bless us, every one.

SEVEN YEARS IN THE MAKING!

The Carl Barks Library is now complete!

Carl Barks is the master comic book artist who wrote and drew over 500 stories featuring Donald Duck, Huey, Dewey and Louie, Uncle Scrooge, Gyro Gearloose, Gladstone Gander, and many other Walt Disney characters. His stories are among the most beloved and sought after of all time and many of the original comic books his work appeared in have become expensive, hard-to-find collector's items.

But Barks deserves to be read, so Another Rainbow has collected his Disney stories into an oversized, ten-set, thirty-volume hardcover encyclopedia called The Carl Barks Library. Each set of three 9" x 12" books comes in a colorful hand-made slipcase illustrated with a Carl Barks cover. The interior artwork is clearly printed in crisp black and white, just as Barks originally drew it. Details that were hidden by sloppy color before now leap off the pages. The original comic book covers and many special features are reproduced in full color on slick paper.

The long-anticipated last set, seen above, contains 63 stories from Walt Disney's Comics & Stories, plus two additional 10-pagers intended for WDC&S but censored in the 1940s, including the famous "Silent Night" story, appearing here in full color for the first time anywhere. At the end of Volume 3 is a chronological index to all of Barks' Disney classics reprinted in the CBL.

The retail price for this and each carefully produced three-volume set is $110.00 except for the complex, special set VI which sells for $125.00. These sets are available only from selected comic book specialty shops, or directly from the publisher. You can buy a set at a time, or subscribe to the entire Library at a substantial savings. To order Set X, or to obtain more information on the contents of previous releases and subscription details, send in the handy coupon at right.

GAWRSH!

I GOT MUH OWN LETTER COLUMN!

Send to: Disney Comics, 500 South Buena Vista Street
Burbank, California 91521

Dear Editor,

Given the proliferation of superhero parodies in recent years, one can only wonder why the return of Super Goof (in Goofy Adventures #6) took as long to occur as it did. In this age of "Teenage Mutant Ninja Green-Guys" and even DuckTales' own ironclad icon, Gizmoduck, it seems fitting to see the re-introduction of one of comics' earlier super spoofs. Rick Hoover's action-packed covers to both Goofy Adventures #6 and the upcoming comic album (which I eagerly await) proudly commemorate the "Goober Gulping Guardian's" 25th anniversary.

A continuing Super Goof title would be nice but, if that is not possible, consider the following suggestion. As Disney intends to publish a digest, why not make Super Goof a continuing feature? New stories drawn by Rick Hoover, supplemented by the Gutenberghus Group and other sources, would once again allow us to enjoy Disney Comics' "own" super-doer.

Well, until Super Goof teams up with Gizmoduck...

Joe Torcivia
Brooklyn, NY

Dear Editor,

Well, you've done it again! Goofy Adventures #6 is superb! The cover by Rick Hoover is a masterpiece, like all the others he's contributed. "The Thief of Zanzibar" was great! It's now ranked as my all-time favorite Super Goof.

Even though all the stories you've printed so far were funny, NONE of them are as ridiculous and hilarious as "Goofy Hippocrates." Even the funny lines such as "Oh, boy! It's one of those cave things" are nothing compared to the great artwork.

Keep up the good work, and if there ever comes a time when you're frustrated because a certain issue won't sell very well, just remember what Goofy would say in a situation like that: "Hyuck! Gawrsh!"

Daniel Rosenberg
Santa Barbara, CA

Thanks for the praise, but let me see if I understand what you wrote about "Goofy Hippocrates": the script was funny, but even its funniest lines weren't as funny as the artwork. Hmmm...I hope that's a compliment.

Dear David,

I first finished reading Goofy Adventures #6 a little while ago, and as usual, Goofy is as silly as ever. The Super Goof story was okay, but the one about Goofy Hippocrates was much funnier.

The bit with the Cave-Goofy was hilarious in the beginning, and the Athens joke also broke me up.

Everything about this comic book is excellent, except for one thing. The letter column title is too long. You guys could have come up with something better than this, couldn't you?

Otherwise, keep up the good work.

Steven Acevedo
Bronx, New York

Gosh, Steven...what's so long about "Gawrsh!"? Seems like a pretty short title to me.

The Request Poll

We've gotten more requests for Goofy to be Christopher Columbus, Thomas Edison, Benjamin Franklin, Babe Ruth and King Tut, and for Goofy versions of 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea and Don Quixote.

What are your choices? Send us one, two, three or four names. (Avoid living people or those recently dead, please.) If enough readers agree on a candidate, we'll see what we can do. After all, look what happened when readers wanted James Goof!

Next Issue

In ancient Japan, Samurai Goofy gets mistaken for the emperor--and has to lead his troops into war!

Then it's up to the 1930s, when the Goofy G-Man battles the Mystery Bad Guy in a tale by Scott Saavedra (Chip 'n' Dale Rescue Rangers) and Rick Hoover.

Lastly, "A Goofy Look at Weather" answers the burning question, "Was weather invented just to give people something to talk about at parties?"

It's all under a superb Rick Hoover cover. Join us, won't you?
